

I travel for a living, I'm a truck driver. I love being able to tune into a station in ct and listen to it till I get to ohio. I also love the variety of programs offered, I can listen to both sides of a political issue and get an outsiders view (bbc world news). Its great, I do not think the National Association of Broadcasters should dictate what I listen to. Thank you
Thomas Stange